VENTURA COUNTY — Every child deserves a family, and this New Year, 100.7 KHAY's Dave Daniels hopes that by joining Foster VC Kids for their "Open Heart" drive, through Jan. 31st, more dedicated families who are ready for the life-changing experience of opening their home to a local foster child or youth will come forward.

Foster VC Kids and KHAY are raising awareness of the need for additional, needed homes with heart for local foster youth in need. They are seeking quality caregivers in West Ventura County, specifically Oxnard and Ventura, who can help children remain in their schools of origin and who have space for two or more children so brothers and sisters can stay together for the holidays.

"There are so many incredible children and youth in Ventura County who just need a place to call home," said Dave Daniels, 100.7 KHAY morning show host. "It's so important that we, as a community, step up to give these kids the support and stability they need to thrive."

To participate in the "Open Heart" drive by finding out about the many ways to support a foster child or youth, take the Foster VC Kids online information session at <http://fostervckids.org/online-info-session/>, tune into Dave Daniels on the 100.7 KHAY morning show through January 31st, and save the date for the upcoming "Open Heart" Town Hall event on Saturday February 25th.
